Hinds CC awards fall Foundation scholarships to Readus

Special to Bolton News

The Hinds Community College Foundation recently recognized 2024-25 scholarship recipients, donors and other honorees at a reception at the Muse Center on the Rankin Campus. Among those being recognized were Douglas Norris of Pelahatchie, who received the Student Government Association Endowed Scholarship for the Jackson Campus; Parish Holmes of McComb, who received the Student Government Association Endowed Scholarship for Nursing Allied Health; and D'Jaydyn Readus of Bolton, who received the Student Government Association Endowed Scholarship for the Raymond Campus. Pictured (l to r) are Norris, Holmes, Readus, and Hinds employee DeAndre House.

Second annual "May Day the Bolton Way" in the works

Bolton News

Bolton-area residents are encouraged to save the date for the second annual "May Day the Bolton Way," which is scheduled for Saturday, May 24, at 130 Champion Hill Road, the site of the old V.L. Reuben School.

Set for 10 a.m. until 4 p.m., the day will include food, space jumps, face painting, a vendor market, games, entertainment, a live DJ and more.

Billed as a family-friendly event, attendees are encouraged to bring tents, coolers and chairs to enjoy the festivities. As food vendors will be onsite, grills will not be allowed.

Currently, vendor and sponsor opportunities are available.
